Crisis preparedness

Our checklist helps you improve your preparedness, for both you and your pet

Svenska Blå Stjärnan

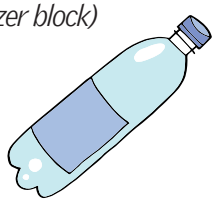

CHECKLIST DOG

Good to have at home for you and your pet

- ☐ Food that can be stored at room temperature
- ☐ Water (0.5 dl per kg/day)
- ☐ Blankets and dog jackets (for staying warm)

- ☐ Frozen bottle of water (acts as a freezer block)
- ☐ Spray bottle (for staying cool)
- ☐ Wet wipes/hand sanitizer
- ☐ Poop bags
- ☐ Transport cage (for small dogs)
- ☐ Lead and collar (easily accessible)
- ☐ Muzzle (get dog used to having a muzzle)

- ☐ First aid kit
- ☐ Any required medication, and the dosage instructions
- ☐ Fluid replacement
- ☐ Supplements to reduce diarrhea
- ☐ Vaccination card and pet passport
- ☐ Rucksack packed ready for evacuation

IMPORTANT PHONE NUMBERS

Keep somewhere easy to access

113 13 – for information during a crisis

My vet

.....

My animal hospital (open 24/7))

.....

.....

My insurance company/policy number

.....

Contact person who can take care of my pet for me

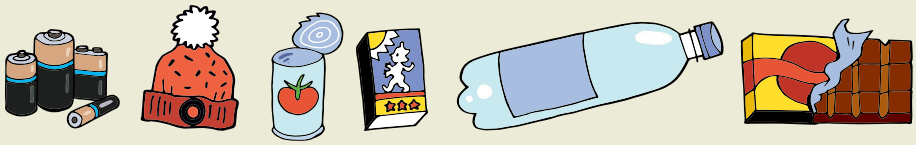

.....

Other telephone numbers that are useful for me and my pet. Fill in below.

.....

.....

To be able to take care of your pet, you need to be able to take care of yourself. Do you have everything on the checklist available at home?

CHECKLIST:

- ☐ Warmth ..... wood-burning stove, sleeping bag, blankets, warm clothes
- ☐ Light ..... torch, stearin candle, lanterns, matches
- ☐ Food, for humans and animals ..... reserve food and camping stove
- ☐ Water ..... water carrier, water purification
- ☐ Hygiene items ..... wet wipes, toilet paper, plastic bags, garbage bags
- ☐ Radio not dependent on mains electricity ..... batteries
- ☐ Cash

Don't forget to register ownership of your dog with the Swedish Board of Agriculture.

If the dog goes missing, the ID marking and registration can help ensure quick reunification.

Find out more at:

svenskablastjarnan.se

krisinformation.se

Contact details:

sbs@svenskablastjarnan.se

Visit us on Facebook, YouTube and Linkedin